- Row 3 - Skip the first 3 stitches, sc into next 3 stitches, chain 3, skip 5 stitches, sc into the next 3 stitches, chain 3, skip 5 stitches. Repeat until 2 stitches remain, chain 1, skip 1 stitch, dc into last stitch, chain 3, turn your work
- Row 4 - Make 3 dc into the first chain space, skip the next stitch, make 1 sc into the next stitch, make 7 dc into the next chain space, skip the next stitch, make 1 sc into the next stitch. Repeat until a chain space remains, make 4 dc into last chain space, chain 1, turn your work
- Row 5 - Make 2 sc in the next two stitches, chain 3, skip 5 stitches, make 3 sc into the next 3 stitches. Repeat until you reach the end of the row, chain 1, turn your work
- Repeat rows 2 through 5 until your blanket measures approximately 69"

TIPS:

- Make sure your blanket ends with a row 5 to give it a straight, finished edge.
- Attaching each new skein with a double knot will ensure it never coming unraveled due to the loose crochet stitch.
- Machine wash your blanket on delicate setting and tumble dry low or lay flat to dry.
- This blanket fits perfectly at the foot of a queen sized bed (see photo above).
